

School Newsletter Friday 24th January 2025

What a wonderful week in school! We've continued to engage in all our fantastic new topics which have brought great experiences with them. Our Year 4 and 5 students have been particularly lucky as they have had the opportunity to work with a director from the Royal Shakespeare Company as part of the work they're doing towards their upcoming performance at the Bridgehouse Theatre in Warwick. They spent 2 hours each with her on Thursday working on their scenes which they will now rehearse in the weeks leading up to their performance on the 3rd of February.

Looking ahead, on the 7th February, we'll be participating in the NSPCC Number Day. We're inviting all our pupils to come to school dressed up 'mathematically' – let your imagination run wild with number-inspired costumes! Whether it's a t-shirt adorned with equations, a hat shaped like a calculator, or any other maths-themed dress-up, we can't wait to see the inventive ideas you come up with. Please can children who dress up bring a donation for NSPCC with them to school on this day.

For our parents and carers of pupils with special educational needs, we have a SEND clinic on Wednesday 29th at 9am. These clinics provide a valuable opportunity to discuss your child's progress, share any concerns, and work collaboratively with Mrs Doberska to ensure we're providing the best possible support for your child.

Please be careful in the weather that is forecast for this weekend and keep checking to see how it will affect you and your weekend plans.

Here are some of the exciting things we've been up to this week:

Trying different fruits in Year 1!

Working with the RSC director in Year 5!

Year 2 turned their classroom into a shop!

Year 4 worked with the director from the RSC!

Practising knife skills in Year 3!

Investigating shadows in Year 6!

EYFS made the 3 Little Pigs' houses!
